Celebrating London

An RPS London Region group project exploring London's cultural depth and diversity through its many public festivals and events during 2018 (and part 2017).

What Happened?

- 450 separate cultural events were photographed
- by 50 photographers
- and 3,300 images uploaded to the website.

A small selection - just 198 images - are on display here today.

More can be seen on the website: <http://www.celebratinglondon.org.uk/rps>

We hope you will enjoy our Exhibition.

The London Region of the RPS aims to provide opportunities for photographers of all levels to learn and develop their skills in positive and enjoyable environments, whether in workshops, as group events, on group walks or by taking part in projects

For more information about this Exhibition or the RPS, please go to the website: rps.org/London or e-mail: london@rps.org

The Royal Photographic Society exists to educate members of the public by increasing their knowledge and understanding of photography and in doing so to promote the highest standards of achievement in photography in order to encourage public appreciation of photography. The RPS is a charity which has been leading photography since 1853.
